Once you have been an ordeal member for ten months, you are eligible for the brotherhood honor. The requirements are:

1. Serve your unit and retain your registration in Scouting. During a period of at least 10 months, strive to fulfill your Obligation by continuing and expanding your service to your own troop or team.
2. Memorize the signs of Arrow Membership. Memorize the Obligation of the Order, which you received form Allowat Sakima (printed on the back of this scorecard). Also, memorize the Order of the Arrow Official Song (also printed on the back), the Admonition, the sign of Ordeal Membership, and the Arrow handclasp,
3. Advance in your understanding of the Ordeal. Gain a thorough understanding of the Ordeal though which you have passed.
4. Plan for service in your lodge. Retain your registration in your Order of the Arrow lodge and keep your dues paid. Be aware that acceptance of Brotherhood membership involves a pledge of service to lodge. Develop a concrete idea of how you plan ot fulfill this pledge.
5. Review your progress. When you earnestly feel that you have met the challenges above, write a letter to you lodge membership secretary. In the letter:

Explain what you think the Obligation means.

Describe how you have been fulfilling this Obligation in your troop or team and in your daily, and how you have used your understanding of the Ordeal to aid in this service.

Describe your specific plans for giving service in the lodge program.

After you have fulfilled these requirements, bring this scorecard and your letter to the next Lodge Ordeal.

All questions were adequately completed orally to myself.

Order of the Arrow Obligation:

“I, (your name), do hereby promise, on my Honor as a Scout, that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui.

I will always regard the ties of brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow as lasting, and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit, even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities, and will endeavor, so far as in my power lies, to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.”
